

Andrew Reibelt

Andrew Reibelt was born & raised in Roma and developed a keen interest in the property market at a young age through research and personal investment. He arrived in Redcliffe to play Rugby League for the Dolphins and work in various roles within the Redcliffe Leagues Club and soon fell in love with the Peninsula's natural beauty. An opportunity arose to begin a career in Real Estate and within 2 years Andrew had acquired his own company with the purchase of 2 of Redcliffe's longest serving agencies Goldsworthy's & Peninsula Realty and Rentals. Andrew then moved on to become the Principal at RealWay in 2005. As well as being a fully licenced Agent and Principal Andrew also is a fully qualified Auctioneer as well. When you choose Andrew and his team for any of your Real Estate needs you have confidence with the team's combined strengths of technology, experience and enthusiasm. During the last eight years Andrew has been consistently ranked amongst the top agents in the country for number and volume of sales. His aim is to provide top quality service with advice that can be relied upon & trusted. Andrew and his team proudly support the local community and remain active in a wide range of sponsorships in the local area. Andrew has achieved national coverage on such reality television programs as "Hot Auctions" and recorded training CD's with some of Australia's most respected coaches. This profile allows his clients the advantage of ongoing widespread exposure to potential interstate plus overseas buyers. Andrew is consistently rewarded for his advertising and marketing skills and these benefits are passed directly on to his selling clients. Andrew averages over 50 million dollars worth of sales per year which helps move over 170 families annually and in the process bettering people's living and financial positions..
